

Air1 is the most positive radio station on the air and by removing it would have a profoundly negative effect. By moving my local Air1 position it would not allow my family access to the station. This station has given myself and my family a positive station to listen to instead of all the negative stuff on the air. Please leave it alone. God Bless you and thank you for your time. Mark Challender